The Youth Entrepreneurship Program will be hosting a launch party to promote their youth designed, youth produced, youth researched community cookbook titled, Crown Heights is Cookin’.

Advance Praise for Crown Heights is Cookin’:

“Crown Heights is Cookin’ combines two of Brooklyn’s most flavorful ‘ingredients’—its title of Culinary Capital of America and our diversity, which is well represented by these outstanding young women from the Crown Heights community. Bravo to the Crown Heights Community Meditation Center, the Jewish Community Council and the UJA-Federation of New York for helping to put Crown Heights on the ‘front burner’ and turning Brooklyn into Cook-lyn!”

RSVP: by June 21st, 2010 to Rachel Levy at 718-773-6886 or at
